

Dalasinfoniettan

Dalasinfoniettan - the chamber orchestra of Dalecarlia - formed in 1988 and with 28 full-time musicians, is based in Falun in central Sweden and has a mission to cover the whole region of Dalecarlia with annual concerts in a variety of venues, with repertoire spanning from baroque to contemporary music and jazz. In September 2018, the orchestra traveled to Japan with concerts in Sapporo and Tokyo. During spring 2019, Daniel Blendulf makes his last season as the orchestra's Chief Conductor. In autumn 2019, Roberto González-Monjas will be Dalasinfoniettan's new Chief Conductor.

During the last years, the orchestra has invited international soloists such as Janine Jansen, Evelyn Glennie and Peter Jablonski. Dalasinfoniettan is a flexible orchestra. Collaboration with e.g. jazz musicians have resulted in CD releases with Peter Asplund and Rigmor Gustafsson.

Each year, in February, the international chamber music festival Vinterfest is organized by Musik i Dalarna in collaboration with the municipalities of Mora, Orsa and Älvdalen. Artistic Director is the Icelandic pianist Víkingur Ólafsson and Dalasinfoniettan is the festival's host orchestra.

During 2019, Dalasinfoniettan's very own CD will be released. In the spring of 2019, Musik i Dalarna and Dalateatern will produce the musical Sweeney Todd by Stephen Sondheim with Janne Åström starring.
